AFTER THE CONFLAGRATION

Durham is Not Cast Down, but Will Rebuild

NEARLY TWO BLOCKS IN ASHES

The Odor of the Fragrant Weed—The Water Failed — Loungers Who Knew it All—The Insurance.

Staff Correspondence.

Durham, N. C., Oct. 15.—There are compensations even for a train that creeps snail like toward one's destination, after 1:30 a. m., when the moon is high and the landscape glimmers weirdly, with here and there the ghostly vapor rising like columns of silver toward the dome, smoke of incense offered nightly to the old-time godess.

As the train approached Durham there was noticeable an indescrible aroma as if old mother earth had been indulging in the unfeminine luxury of a choice Havana; on a nearer approach the smoke could be seen rising still in mighty volumes, lurid with the volcanic glare of the ruins that mark the site of what only yesterday morning were immense prizeries and the homes of happy families. The fire fiend had claimed his tithe.

There is something a bit uncanny about the glowing debris of a monster fire, just at dawn, with the moon still high and the stars only just beginning to pale, while here and there groups of all-night loungers loiter at street crossings in the chill, thin air of that unreasonable hour; loungers who talk and argue and tell all about how it happened and how it might have been prevented. Loungers always know more than all the rest of the world—perhaps because the knowing never extends to doing.

As stated in yesterday's paper the origin of the fire was in Bass' prizery; it is now stated that it was started by a spark from the engine falling in some waste tobacco on the fourth floor. The order of burning was Bass' two prizeries, Duke's prizery and dwelling across a narrow street, Carrington's prizery and two of Duke's, all on one block, were simultaneously wrapped in flames that curled and hissed in utter defiance of the heroic efforts of the fire company to check them. This block was the centre of the conflagration and all around it little dwellings dropped to ashes at a touch of its fiery breath. One modest brown dwelling standing by the block was entirely unharmed, though it is difficult to see how it escaped.

There were four storage houses four stories high, and three of three stories all packed with hogsheads of tobacco from floor to roof. It is estimated that between four and five million pounds of tobacco was destroyed. The household effects of nearly all the dwellings were saved. The buildings were all of wood and the only vestige left of them is the heaps of burning tobacco, piles of tin roofing tortured into fantastic shapes, and huge iron rods coiling in and out of the debris in serpentine fashion.

One of the most striking features of the catastrophe is the odd way in which the stored tobacco is burning. In the ruins of the larger warehouses the ashes are piled twenty feet high or more, and the ashes of each hogshead preserves its form like the ashe of a good cigar. Here and there in the mass are flues, through which the red heat of it glows hotly still. Men guarding the ruins say that under the ashe heaps are hogsheads of tobacco still uninjured, so slowly does it burn. It is probable that the debris will burn for several days yet.

The electric light wires, lying in the streets and the sections of bursted hose, added to the difficulties of fighting the fire. The Duke cigarette establishment was saved with the greatest difficulty. The wood yard in the rear of it took fire and it was only after the engines of the plant were set to throwing water that it was extinguished.

The Raleigh fire companies did not unload their apparatus from the train, as the local company was using all the water supply. It appears that the water pressure was very low. An eye witness said that the stream at first could only be thrown some eight or ten feet. There are conflicting reports, but the concensus of opinion is that the water supply was woefully deficient.

The local insurance men were seen and the total losses ascertained. The risks were placed with four agents; Mr. Griswold reported a loss by his companies of $46,500; Mr. Piper a loss of $5,500; Mr. Southgate a loss of $55,390; Mr. McCabe a loss by his companies of $66,141. This gives a total of $173,531, loss of insurance companies. These losses will be promptly settled. It is impossible as yet to estimate accurately the loss of property, but it will probably be between a quarter and a half million dollars.

During the fire three large sticks of dynamite were placed in one of the building with a view to blowing it up and stopping the progress of the fire, but cooler counsel prevailed and the building was saved. Several members of the fire company and others were prostrated by the heat and overwork. Eighty-seven people have been temporarily thrown out of employment.

Mr. Robinson, editor of the Daily Sun, met Mr. Michie, superintendent of the water company, on the street last night and hot words ensued because of the Sun's account of the fire. Mr. Michie suddenly struck Editor Robinson a severe blow in the face. Mr. Robinson had a bundle of papers in his arms at the time but he dropped them and went for his assailant in a jiffy. Bystanders interfered before serious damage was done. The action of Mr. Michie is being severely criticised as his attack was wholly unprovoked.

The fire is of course the current talk of the city but no one seems cast down. The indomitable pluck and unflinching perseverance of the queen tobacco city of the Piedmont will avail to build more firmly what has been destroyed. Of such stuff are Durham citizens made.

REV. J. W. LEE IN CHARLOTTE.

The Evangelist Doing Good Work. Last Night's Services.

Greensboro people will be glad to hear of the continued success of the Irish evangelist in his meetings. He is now waking things up in Charlotte. From this morning's Observer we clip the following:

Evangelist Lee has been fortunate in having a week of fair weather for his gospel tent meetings. The people are not kept back by atmospheric or other hindrances, so are attending the services with sustained regularity.

Mr. Lee's subject yesterday morning was, "The Changed Position of the Cloud," taken from the 13th chapter of Exodus. He spoke of God's care of Israel in the flight from Pharaoh's pursuing hosts; his guidance of them by the cloud, and his changing the position of the cloud at the Red Sea, throwing it to their rear between them and the Egyptian hosts, thus adapting Himself to their wants.

The crowd yesterday morning was the largest yet present at a morning meeting.

The speaker chose for his subject last night: "The Funeral of the Soul," basing his remarks on texts from Hebrews and Ezekiel: "It is appointed unto men to die, and after death the judgment;" and "Why will ye die?" "There are three kinds of death mentioned in the Bible," said Mr. Lee—"spiritual death—the condition of the sinner; natural death—when the body ceases to exist; and eternal death—the separation of the soul from life and God.

"God did not intend men to go to hell; if he had he would not taunt them with being the cause of their own death." The speaker gave a vivid description of eternal death, describing the helplessness of a dead soul and picturing the funeral of such with the demons of hell as pall-bearers.

After the sermon a number came forward and made a profession of religion.

To date there have been 100 professions.

Important Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the directors and members of the Y. M. C. A. of Greensboro in the association rooms Friday night, October 15th, at 8 p. m. All members of the board of directors, all members of the association and all who are in any way interested in the association are requested and urged to be present at this meeting. The question of discontinuing the association will be considered.

Respectfully,
P. P. CLAXTON,
President.

Mocksville Train Rocked.

This morning as the Mocksville train going to Winston was near the Yadkin river an unknown negro threw a stone, which crashed through a window and struck a white man on the head, inflicting a painful, if not serious wound. We failed to learn the injured party's name.

The negro was plainly seen by parties on the train. Efforts are being made to capture the rascal.

Ingersoll and McAdoo Attorneys.

It is learned that Mr. Victor C. McAdoo has received a very flattering proposition from Col. Robt. Ingersoll to enter into co-partnership with the Colonel in his law office in New York City.

SWELL EVENT OF THE SEASON

Was the Reception at the M. and M. A. Last Night.

LIGHT FOOTFALLS OF THE HOURS.

Maidens Fair, Staid Business Men and Ubiquitous Young Beaux. What the Club Is.

The rooms of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association in the Katz building were ablaze with light last night, the occasion being a reception given by the association to their friends. It was a success both as to numbers and management.

The guests began to arrive at a little after nine o'clock and soon the spacious rooms were filled with a throng of pretty women and good looking men, mostly the former. There was present the staid business man of affairs, the ubiquitous young beaux, the dignified matron and the merry girl of sweet sixteen and a little over, all enjoying themselves. Each one seemed to be having a good time and wanting others to do the same.

About half past ten refreshments were served in the Billiard parlors and the bountiful supply of fruits and ices came in for their share of attention. During the evening the band seated behind palms in the large bay window in the handsome reading room furnished music, adding much to the scene of animation. After refreshments were served, dancing was enjoyed by the devotees of the art.

About twelve the guests began to say good night with expressions of pleasure and good will.

Before closing we will say a few words in regard to the M. & M. A. It was organized as an aid to the Industrial and Imigration Association. It is is a regularly chartered stock company with regularly elected officers, governed by charter and by-laws. The membership is steadily growing. Through this association the members hope to be of material advantage to Greensboro as well as to make it a place of social enjoyment.

To the ladies who kindly assisted in the decorations and to manager Montague, the board of governor's and reception committee return thanks.

Attempt to Wreck Train.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Huntington, Pa., Oct. 15.—Two desperate attempts were made this morning to wreck the Pennsylvania train near New Hamilton, by placing rails across the track, The obstruction was discovered by the watchman early this morning, and removed before train time. Frank Noe, of Brooklyn, has been arrested for the attempt.

Cabinet Position Offered.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Judge Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, has again been invited to join Mr. McKinley's cabinet as Attorney General, which position he declined in February last. It is not thought now that he will accept.

Western Union Vice President.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 15.—At the meeting of the directors of the Western Union this morning. T. F. Clark was elected as vice-President to succeed John Van Horne resigned, Mr. Clark was formerly assistant to the president.

Oates-Whitworth.

At the residence of Mrs. Emma Oates, at 206 Buchanan street, last night at 8 o'clock, Miss Lula Oates was joined in marriage to Mr. Walter C. Whitworth. Dr. Weaver performed the ceremony.

Go to Ragan & White for Stoves.

Judging from the stoves of various descriptions bought at the auction yesterday by Messrs. Ed. Ragan and David White, Greensboro is soon to have a new hardware firm. They will probably make a specialty of stoves.

Special Meeting.

The Board of governors and the election committee of the M. and M. Association are requested to meet at the club rooms this evening at 8 o'clock. Business of importance.

At Westminster Church Sunday.

Rev. S. O. Hall's subject for Sunday night's service, at the Westminster Presbyterian church, will be "Heavenly Recognition."

Another Rise in Discount.

London, Oct. 14—The Bank of England has raised the price of discount from two and a half to three per cent.

TWO OF A KIND.

And a Discard Perhaps in the Near Future.

Mr. Ed. Albright, Wilmington's candidate for postmaster was in the city this morning in close consultation with Greensboro's candidate Mr. B. C. Sharp. They were consulting, advising and sympathizing, it is said. Mr. Sharp is said to have already gotten the postal laws and regulations and is well posted for any contingency that may arise.

Mr. Albright has not yet invested to that extent, but he has gotten all the points from Greensboro's man and all he lacks now is being appointed.

Challenge to Corbett.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 14.—M. J. Connelly, on behalf of Peter Maher, tonight issued a challenge to James J. Corbett to fight for the heavy weight championship of the world and a side bet of $5,000, the fight to take place before the club offering the largest purse. Connelly will meet Corbett at any time at the office of the Police Gazette to arrange details. If Corbett does not accept the challenge it is open to any man in the world.

Football.

As we go to press the Greensboro boys and the team from Guilford College are lining up on the ball grounds. Both teams are good. The Greensboro boys are all heavy and will depend mostly on tandem plays and rushing the centre. Guilford has a lighter and more active team and will try to make their distance around the ends and through the air.

The home team will play as follows: c, Boon; Boycott, r.g.; Wright, l. g.; Daniels, r. t.; Wharton, Davis, l. t.; Buchanan, r. e.; Causey, l. e.; Reynolds, q. b.; Taylor, Gilmer, r. h. b.; Devin, l. h. b.; Douglas, fullback, Caldwell.

Tammany Candidate Dead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 15.—Dr. James P. Daly, Tammany's candidate for coroner, died of apoplexy this morning caused by the immense amount of work he has done since the opening of the campaign.

"THE PEOPLE."

If an infallible test were to be asked for a demagogue it could be given in a few words—count his repetition of "the people." The more demagogic he is the oftener the term will occur in his palaver.

There is a certain briefly prominent politician and Journalist in the State that never loses an opportunity to drop the phrase from his tongue or his pen. It is "the people" this and "the people" that. And yet a careful analysis of his effusions will reveal that he considers himself the people. Whatever he does the people do. Whatever he does not do the people would not touch with a ten foot pole. What perfect unity, what a charming blend, what an unparalleled instance of multum in parvo!

After all it is only an old worn out, threadbare trick. Every politician from Mark Antony down has used it. It is about time that its efficacy should desert it. We believe that even the demagogue should be compelled to change his howl occasionally, to throw in a few variations so to speak. "The people" has served the professional wind-jammer quite long enough. Call 'em folks or lai pallai or anything for a change.

THE NEW YORK SITUATION.

Henry George says he will be elected.

Van Wyck says very positively he will be elected.

General Tracy says he will be the next mayor of New York.

Seth Low says that the prize is already assured to him.

And it is not quite apparent how all these gentlemen are to be elected.

IT is strange that Spain should not have seen before this how easily the rebellion could be settled by the distribution of a few cargoes of folding beds among the insurgents.

IT is quite probable that we shall shortly be informed that some hundreds of prisoners from Siberia have been taken under the protecting wing of the New York Journal.

WE are in receipt of a communication from the Southern Stock Mutual Insurance Company which other matter crowds out of today's paper. It will appear tomorrow.

Sam Pateet and John Goodwin have been arrested on a charge of breaking into and robbing the store of Shuford & Setzer at Hickory, Monday night.

Three boys from Catawba Springs appropriated some of their father's cash and started for Illinois. The father is on the track of his wayward boys.

Two negroes in Salisbury have entered into an agreement to swap wives. The wives have applied for divorce in order that the exchange may be legally made.

The News and Observer says that Tom Sears, of White Oak township, caught sixteen 'possums up one tree a few nights ago. This is taken as a happy political omen.

The board of directors of the Odd Fellows' orphanage at Goldsboro met and arranged for putting in water and electric lights and completing the furnishing of the main building.

Yesterday was Durham (N. C.) day at the Nashville exposition. Colonel Julian S. Carr was the orator of the day and a reception was tendered in his honor at the Seaboard Air Line building.

The statement of the first quarter's business of the Louisburg liquor dispensary is not a good one. The dispensary is no big financial success. The gross receipts were $2,576.65; net profits only $177.06.

Kinston Free Press: Mr. Geo. Gray killed a large bear near Wheat Swamp Thursday night. The bear was in poor condition, but weighed 215 pounds. The bear had killed two hogs for one of Mr. Gray's neighbors the night before.

A. M. Coffin, a conductor on the street car line in Charlotte, was run over by a switching engine yesterday on the Carolina Central and his body horribly mangled. He was one of the most popular men in the employ of the street car company.

The condition of Mrs. Albert Watson, who was shot by her husband in Raleigh Monday morning, before he committed suicide, was unchanged yesterday. The News and Observer says she was resting very comfortably at the hospital last night.

Two new convicts were taken to the pen by a negro deputy from Craven county yesterday. Both of the convicts are negroes. Jesse Whitehead gets 11 years for burglary; Benjamin Copes was sent up for one year for breaking into a store.

The Chatham Record notes a peculiar accident which happened last Tuesday to a child of Mr. Ed Pearce at that place. By some means it got its head wedged in its mother's sewing machine and the machine had to be broken in order to release it.

A man named Hancock was arrested in Charlotte a few days ago on a telegram from the chief of police of Athens, Ga. He was charged with stealing a horse and buggy. Yesterday he was released because the Athens accusers failed to appear in response to several telegrams. Mr. Hancock now proposes to make it warm for those who caused his false arrest.

The Hayseeder is an iceberg this week. The promised "hot stuff" has not materialized. It calls Russell associate editor of the Caucasian, and referring to the Caucasian's intimation that Col. Andrews "pays the freight" on the Hayseedes says: "Does the Caucasian mean to say that Col. Andrews is in any way interested in this paper? We dare you to assert in the Caucasian, sneakingly, what you wish to convey by innuendo."—News and Observer.

N. R. Wilds, the well known negro barber was committed to jail this morning in default of $50 bond on the charge of forgery. Sometime in the spring Wilds went to the home of Francis Manuel near Charlotte and produced a note stating that he had been sent to her by Mr. J. D. McCall to collect $5. Wilds had been informed by the woman that Mr. Call had drawn up some papers for her. She paid the money to Wilds and he skipped to South Carolina. On his return here yesterday he was lodged in jail.—Charlotte News.

upon some stoves and ranges, but a pot boils very soon on a PENINSULAR RANGE. This range represents the result of years of study and experiment. It is absolutely the nearest approach to perfection which has been placed upon the market. We have cheaper stoves and ranges for those who do not wish to invest in one of the more expensive kinds. We have also a full line of Gas and Oil Heaters, Wood and Coal Stoves. We call especial attention to the Wilson Air Tight Heater. This popular stove is better than ever, and must have a great run this season.

A HUGE ENTERPRISE.

A Really Big Double Circus to be Here Tomorrow.

The coming of the great John Robinson and Franklin Bros.' enormous combined shows to exhibit in this city tomorrow and tomorrow night will be a treat to the citizens of this entire community. The Robinson shows have delighted American amusement lovers for more than three generations, and the Franklin Bros. are the founders of the new school of American showmen. In combining and organizing their shows for this season they spared no money to secure the best for every department. A glance at the list of celebrities under their control will convince the most skeptical that they have been amply rewarded for their great outlay, for they are the best in the world in their various lines. The horses are models of horseflesh, while their stud of trained horses do everything but talk. They will appear at every performance with their original trainer. Twenty lions in one den are to be seen only with these great shows. A royal troupe of Japanese is another feature. They would be a whole show in the ordinary circus, but are only a single feature with the Robinson & Franklin Bros.' shows. Acres of tents are required to accommodate this huge amusement, while one ticket admits to all the combined shows.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

GORMAN EXPECTS A VICTORY.

Returns From New York With War Sinews.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 14. — Senator Gorman visited the Democratic state headquarters today for the first time in two weeks. To the Star correspondent he said that he expected to see the Democratic municipal ticket elected in Baltimore city, and believed the Democratic legislative ticket in the first and the third city districts would be elected.

He expressed confidence as to Democratic success in the state at large, and appeared to be extremely pleased at the outlook. It is understood that one result of Mr. Gorman's recent visit to New York has been an increase in the Democratic campaign fund. Chairman Van Diver has plenty of money at his disposal, and the county leaders who are appearing for assistance rarely complain.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The good judgment of this boy was so practical that one of his comrades composed the following lines.

There was a boy in our town,
And he was wondrous wise;
He went into a Clothing Store,
Near to his home it lies.

And when he saw the Hopkins Clothes,
With all his might and main
He jumped into a suit of them
And ne'er came out again.

A Home Remedy
ENDORSED BY Home People.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 5, 1895.
MRS. JOE PERSON,
Madam:— last year I was afflicted with some skin trouble affecting my feet, pronounced by my physician to be erythema. I was confined to my room for some two months and was lame for six months or more. After trying many remedies without effecting a cure, I resorted to your Remedy. After taking three bottles I began to improve, and before I had finished the fifth or sixth bottle I was practically free of the trouble. Once since then there recurred symptoms of its return, when I again resorted to your Remedy, and again the trouble disappeared. I believe I am indebted to you for relief from a very serious affliction.
Yours truly,
HAMILTON C. JONES.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Chas. E. McKnight went to Reidsville on the noon train.

The cakes for the M. & M. Association reception were furnished by Lindau.

We learn that two new residences will be built on South Spring street at an early date. We grow.

Chas. L. Andrews advertises grapes today at low rates, and they are fine ones, too, nice, sweet and juicy.

There may be something in the ad of Wharton & McAlister which will interest you today. Read and see.

Mrs. Bertha Boyd has accepted the position of matron at the McAdoo House and assumed the duties of the place today.

Mrs. Rose and daughter Lilian and Miss Cohen, of New York, are visiting Mrs. Caesor Cone at her residence on Summit avenue.

The bulls and bears of the Greensboro fruit market are cutting prices at a lively rate, and now is the time to buy choice fruit at choice prices.

The Southern Stock Mutual, of this city, escaped any of the losses occasioned by the big Durham fire yesterday, though they have a good many policy holders there.

Caldcleugh & Bro., Blake, the florist, and J. H. West, the caterer, furnished the decorations and refreshments for the M. &. M. Association reception last night.

Mr. Frank P. Morton who succeeds Mr. Montague as manager of the Benbow today, has had abundant experience in that line and will keep it up to its usual high standard.

Charlie Petty returned today from Cedar Falls where he has been for the Odell Hardware Co. to superintend putting in a number of automatic fire sprinklers for the Cedar Falls mills.

Miss Hellen Mabry, of Ridgeway, who graduated at G. F. C. last commencenent, spent last night in the city with friends, and left today for Wilmington where she will take a position in the city schools.

Mrs. Etta Ward and daughter, of Wilmington, are opening up their stock of millinery, notions and ladies wear, next to Bank of Guilford. Their milliner was to have been here today but was detained in Baltimore.

The elegant home of Mr. B. H. Merrimon has just been handsomely carpeted by Messrs. Johnson & Dorsett. Mr. C. H. Dorsett, of this firm, has just spent three days superintending the job, which was completed last evening.

The express cars nowadays from Wilkesboro are heavily laden with chestnuts and chickens. The chestnut crop is said to be fine, and we known of our own knowledge that they are highly seasoned. The chicken crop from this section is always fine.

The season of the "sere and yellow leaf" is now on. Johnny Frost—You all known Johnny, more familiarly called Jack—will soon complete his work of painting the leaves in lovely, variegated and gorgeous hues. In this kind of work Johnny is the finest artist in the world.

A party who came down last night from Winston says the town was full of people and wagons, and that the warehouses hardly had room for the tobacco sellers who were camped there last night. This is not an unusual thing at certain seasons, and then the circus is in Winston today. Our turn comes tomorrow.

Greensboro is growing and no doubt about that. Today we have two sets of bag pipes, a colored string band, an Italianband and last but not least the wheezy hand organs with our Darwinian ancestors, the inevitable monkeys. This afternoon there is to be a game of football at the athletic park and tomorrow a circus. Don't that look like we are moving along.

Two little darkies had a little fisticuff at the corner of South Elm and East Sycamore this morning. One of them was driving a cart and it seems the other one wanted the outfit, as he held up the driver. Each one seized a brickbat and it looked like rivulets of blood would soon be flowing. There was flashing of white eyes and a tirade of hot words. Dropping the bricks simultaneously they gave a public and free exhibition of what may or may not be called a scientific sparring match. No causualties to report.

Mr. Samuel H. Wiley and bride, of Salisbury, spent last night at the Benbow and left on the noon train today for northern cities and Canada. Mrs. Wiley was a Miss Bernhardt. They were married at Salisbury last evening at 7:30 o'clock. A Salisbury special to the Observer says: "The groom is one of Salisbury's wealthiest and worthiest young business men. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. C. T. Bernhardt, and is a very accomplished, lovely, and estimable young lady.

TO THE PENITENTIARY

Gravely, the Slayer of Low, Goes for Fifteen Years.

Robert Gravely, the youthful murderer of young Low, who was convicted at Surry county court last week, was carried through Greensboro this morning, heavily roped and handcuffed. He is sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years.

In a drunken brawl, more than a year ago, Low and Gravely began to quarrel and then to fight, which resulted in the death of the former at the hands of his friend. Gravely fled to Virginia and was not caught until about two months ago.

He is a delicate looking boy and does not appear to be over twenty years of age.

Joshua Simpkins Company.

The attraction at the Academy of Music next Tuesday the 19th, will be the Joshua Simpkins Company. It is a strong rural comedy drama, opening with a realistic scene of rural home life, showing Skinner Tavern with Uncle Josh's Wild Briar farm in the distance. The play progresses, abounding with interesting situations, until the climax is reached in the third act when a human being is helplessly bound to a log to be cut in twain by a mammoth Buzz saw, and is only saved by the timely arrival of Uncle Josh. Joshua Simpkins was written with the view of keeping an audience thoroughly amused and it fully carries out the author's intention. The plot is not allowed to interfere with the comedy parts to any great extent, thus producing a play that is not only thrillingly interesting, but is said to contain as many laughs as there are grains in a heaped up bushel of wheat.

They Will Be Here.

Tomorrow is circus day in Greensboro. The band will play some very sweet tunes and a grand street parade will take place. There will be an army of show folks, horses, elephants, lions, tigers, bears, snakes and monkeys. Besides all this there will be wagons, horses, mules, oxen, donkeys, pickaninnies and country dogs.

It is safe to conclude, with all these prospects before us, that there'll be a hot time in the old town both tomorrow and tomorrow night.

Wait for the band wagon and if you can't get a seat there will be no extra charge for walking.

Always Ready.

Greensboro's fire boys are always ready for service. Yesterday as soon as news of the conflagration in Durham reached here, Chief Stone wired Mayor McCown, of Durham, that the service of our fire department was at his command. He was notified to be in readiness, but as Raleigh's force was so much nearer they went to the rescue and made Greensboro's aid unnecessary.

North Carolina Colored Fair.

Each one Separate.

If each lump of coal was separate, with legs to walk on and arms to wash and brush itself clean, it would be just a little cleaner, and could get into your cellar just a little easier than it does at present. Mind you, only just a little. We think we have the cleanest and best coal ever mined, and that we deliver it as carefully and promptly as it can be done. We should be glad to have your opinion and we'll treat you fairly.
